Dies ist ein digitales Exemplar eines Buches, das seit Generationen in den Regalen der Bibliotheken aufbewahrt wurde, bevor es von Google im Rahmen eines Projekts, mit dem die Bücher dieser Welt online verfügbar gemacht werden sollen, sorgfältig gescannt wurde.

Das Buch hat das Urheberrecht überdauert und kann nun öffentlich zugänglich gemacht werden. Ein öffentlich zugängliches Buch ist ein Buch, das niemals Urheberrechten unterlag oder bei dem die Schutzfrist des Urheberrechts abgelaufen ist. WILLING'S PRESS GUIDE 1930

FIFTY-SEVENTH Annual Issue

A Comprehensive Index and Handbook of the Press of the United Kingdom of Great Britain, Northern Ireland and the Irish Free State, together with the principal Dominion, Colonial and Foreign Publications

Published by WILLING SERVICE, Advertising at Willing House, 356-364 Grays Inn Rd., London W.C.1
Branch Office — 86 Strand, London, W.C.2

INTRODUCTION

WITH this issue Willing's Press Guide makes its appearance for the 57th year and with full confidence we ask for the cordial welcome which has consistently been extended in the years that are past.

The Press Guide contains in concise form all the information that is required in a work of this character, presented in the manner which we believe from long experience to be best suited for the purpose.

The main feature is, as heretofore, the alphabetical list of newspapers and periodicals published in Great Britain, Northern Ireland and the Irish Free State, an exhaustive list which makes the book invaluable.

This is supplemented by Classified entries, presented in a variety of sub-sections to which a Table of Contents gives facile reference.

A further feature is the long lists of Dominion, Colonial and Foreign papers, essential to Manufacturers and Agents who desire to extend the sale of British manufactured goods overseas, now so necessary to the welfare of this country. The increased volume of these lists adds somewhat considerably to the cost of the Guide but the producers are determined that nothing shall be spared to maintain its utility.

It is with sincere regret that we are compelled to record the cessation of publication of many papers, worthy upholders of the traditions of British journalism, which have either retired from the lists or been amalgamated with other journals. In their long careers they recorded many stirring events in British History, and participated in marvellous developments in newspaper production. The withdrawal of no less than four papers in the County of Worcestershire represents an unusually high percentage of the total number published in the county. It may be understood, however, that the interest of the inhabitants will be amply served by the publications remaining available.

Many will regret, but without surprise, the decision to terminate the publication of so personal a periodical as T.P.'s Weekly. Its passing, like that of its originator, represents a loss to the community.

New publications, while somewhat considerable in number, are mainly of a technical or minor description. This classification does not, of course, apply to certain important ventures which have been floated in the larger Provincial Cities.

Our best thanks are rendered to the proprietors of those journals, periodicals, etc., the names of which are recorded in this book, for the ready assistance we have received in verifying the entries. A few have omitted to reply to our communications and such cases are distinguished by an asterisk in the Alphabetical Index.

Where this appears, purchasers will kindly understand that we have made every effort to secure authoritative confirmation but that the particulars given are either of old standing or lacking the imprimatur of the owners.

We can honestly say that the greatest care has been exercised in the compilation and revision of the Guide in order to retain its reputation for trustworthiness ; but we make no claim to infallibility and are always grateful for criticisms and corrections where required, being fully assured that our own interests are best served by concentrating on the service we render.

It is on such grounds that we present our 1930 issue for the use of its readers.

THE ARCHITECTS' JOURNAL

A WEEKLY JOURNAL FOR THE PROFESSION

Edited by CHRISTIAN BARMAN.

The "Journal" supplies the information and news relative to the Architectural profession, and deals with the thousand details of an architectural practice. It illustrates the finest work in current architecture of Great Britain and of other countries. It is an inspiration to the artist and a source of practical knowledge to the professional man. Weekly, 6d.

THE ARCHITECTURAL REVIEW

A Monthly Magazine of Architecture and Decoration

The subscribers to the "Review" include not only those who take a professional interest in matters relating to Architecture and the Allied Arts, but also members of the lay public, both at home and abroad. There is no country in the civilised world to which the "Review" does not travel month by month. The "Craftsman's Portfolio" is a monthly supplement given with the "Review," in which the finest examples of modern Craftwork are illustrated.

Monthly, 2/6.

"The principal sources of information on modern architecture," says the ENCYCLOPAEDIA BRITANNICA, "are the best architectural periodicals of the various countries." The names of four American, three continental, and two English periodicals follow. The two English papers mentioned are THE ARCHITECTURAL REVIEW and THE ARCHITECTS' JOURNAL.

SPECIFICATION

The Standard Technical Reference Work for Architects, Surveyors, Engineers and Contractors, and all interested in Building Construction and Structural Engineering.

Edited by FREDERICK CHATTERTON, F.R.I.B.A.

This annual volume is the recognised authority on the numerous and diverse subjects relating to building. There are over thirty sections descriptive of the various branches of the Building Trade, together with representative Specification Clauses. Special articles on a variety of important technical subjects, written and illustrated by specialists, are given in each issue. This combination of standard data and authoritative information carefully indexed for rapid consultation presents an unrivalled collection of facts and figures which are so essential to architects when drafting their specifications.

Annually 10/6.

NOTES TO REFERENCES.

- (1) Copies are in the British Museum.
 (2) 1690 is the date often given. The first volume is in the British Museum, Nos. 1 to 3 being too much mutilated for the date to be correctly ascertained, but the fourth number is for Friday, March 10, to Monday, March 13, 1699 (N.S. 1700).
 (3) The date commonly given is 1711, but as many copies of an earlier date are in the British Museum, it is assumed from No. 339, for July, 1708, that publication commenced in 1705.
 (4) Green's History of Worcester (1796) states that it is conjectured a public paper was established in Worcester about 1690.
 (5) For the first eighteen years the numbers were divided into half-yearly volumes. Perhaps the earliest copy in existence is for Jan. 6, 1715-6, vol. vii. One for Nov. 7, 1717, vol. x., was exhibited at the Caxton Celebration, and the earliest copy in the British Museum is vol. xi., No. 21, for Thurs., May 22, 1718—twelve quarto pages, 8½ inches by 6. A number for 1719, vol. xiv., is said to be in the Museum of the Philosophical Society of Leicester; one is spoken of for 1723, vol. xxi.; and the British Museum contains vols. xxxi. and xxxii., for 1728, now an octavo of eight pages, 9 inches by 5½. The date of establishment of the present paper is probably 1731, as a copy of the Lincoln, Rutland, and Stamford Mercury, for Jan. 9, 1789, says "This paper for upwards of Fifty-seven years has been and continues to be circulated every Friday morning," &c., proving that the Stamford Mercury was not looked upon as the original of the present paper.
 (6) The date is assumed from an obituary notice of Mr. Wm. Chase in the paper for June 2, 1744, wherein he is said to have "printed the Norwich Mercury for about 30 years." The proprietors on Jan. 26, 1884, issued a facsimile of the paper of Jan. 21-8, 1727, and they have in their possession "an odd copy or two for 1721."
 (7) No. 530 is dated March 22, 1722 (published twice a week), and No. 1 of the Kentish Gazette is dated April 30 to May 4, 1768. On the following 23rd of July the Kentish Post was incorporated, and the paper appeared as the Kentish Gazette and Canterbury Chronicle, beginning again as No. 1.
 (8) Vol. ii., 1719-20, was in the Caxton Exhibition. The paper was discontinued from 1755 to 1757, a new numbering then being adopted.
 (9) The first number was published on May 2, 1720. A copy of the first volume is in the Northampton Free Reference Library.
 (10) 1720 has been given. No. 255 is dated Feb. 21, 1727.
 (11) A copy of the first number, for July 8, 1723, is in the Bodleian Library, and of this a facsimile was issued as a supplement to the paper on July 8, 1882.
 (12) The York Courant was incorporated with the York Herald, which started on Jan. 2, 1790.
 (13) 1720 is frequently given. A copy for July 10, 1739, is No. 76, vol. ii.; and one for March 12, 1744, is No. 372, vol. ix. A copy of the Salisbury and Winchester Journal for Sept. 7, 1829, is 5639, following which the number is 56310, and so onwards:

RECENT TITULAR CHANGES AND AMALGAMATIONS

*The following list deals only with publications which have changed their titles or have been amalgamated with other publications during the past ten years. The date of issue or of change, where ascertained, follows the title; a second title printed in italic indicates that the list must be again entered with that title until the new-found one is printed in Roman character, when, if further information is required, reference should be made to the publication in the Alphabetical List, page 1. When a publication has received a new title, the contraction bec. signifies "became"; and when a title has been incorporated, the contraction inc. stands for "incorporated with," "amalgamated with" or "merged into."*

Let experience plan your POSTER CAMPAIGNS

The result of more than sixty years' activities on behalf of a considerable number of advertisers is the soundest testimony to the value of the service we render.

In outdoor advertising the wisdom of long experience alone gives that mature judgment which ensures effective use of space.

Careful selection of positions is essential if the full results from any poster directed toward any particular section of the public are to be obtained.

Counsel upon this and numerous other factors affecting result-producing outdoor advertising is part of our every-day service.

On the administrative side our permanent staff of specially trained inspectors, functioning as clients' representatives, are ever alert to see that no mechanical inefficiency hinders the progress of a campaign. This inspection service covers all the routine of checking positions, condition of posters, arranging transfers where necessary and reporting at regular intervals to the client so that he may judge as to what changes or renewals are needed.

There is no charge for estimates or advice.
